How to Choose a Groom’s Suit in Bristol

Men getting ready for their weddings will be able to choose between many wedding suits from Suits Plus at The Galleries, located in Broadmead, Bristol. These include sage tweed, navy, blue, and tuxedo wedding suits, available in bands starting from below £100 up to £300 and above. Group fittings enable sorting out the entire wedding party in just one visit, along with matching suits for boys together with their waistcoats. Free shipping is available throughout the UK on orders worth over £200, and the number to contact is 0117 929 1116.

Welcome to the Bristol Suit Shop

For all those who need an outfit for the bridegroom, one needs to consider visiting Suits Plus which can be found in The Galleries in Broadmead, Bristol. This business specializes in men’s suits, wedding outfits and celebration outfits. Selecting the right suit might be a very challenging process; that’s why the consultants will help guests choose the right option straight away. Many guests change their first impression when they see the outfit in reality.

Most bridegrooms have concerns regarding the size, color and cost before they even step into the shop. Having just a small chat with the team, most of these issues may be resolved. It is important to know the date, the color concept and the budget limit of the purchase.

The shop caters not only for bridegrooms but also for groomsmen, fathers and page boys, thus the whole party will have an opportunity to purchase the matching outfits. Planning for everyone together will save time and ensure that the photos will look perfectly matched.

Picking Your Groom's Suit Style

When picking from a selection of wedding suits, it all starts with the wedding style. It’s a great idea to choose a sage green tweed suit that looks great when photos are taken outdoors or in a barn. Traditional navy and gray suits go with any venue. If the wedding is a more formal one, then tuxedo is what needs to be chosen. Early planning will also provide a chance for the groomsmen to adjust their outfits.

There are about thirty wedding suits in Suits Plus store, both two piece and three piece ones. Caridi check looks good on a man, and Malibu tuxedo will add some black tie touch. Trying a couple of styles will help you find the one that suits you the most. The visit is going to be fast and not stressful at all.

First of all, it is necessary to think of the wedding location when choosing the suit. The countryside wedding needs tweed suit, whereas the city wedding requires a sleek navy suit. Getting some advice from the staff is a way to make the right choice considering the season and the place.

Visiting The Galleries in Broadmead

The address for Suits Plus is 4 Union Gallery, The Galleries, Broadmead, Bristol BS1 3XD. Each suit at the store is hanging on a rail, allowing visitors to look at the suit's material and cutting in person rather than just through pictures. It helps to ask questions in the beginning and not leave anything until the end.

Opening Hours to Plan Around

The store is open from Monday to Saturday between 9 am and 7 pm, while on Sunday between 11 am and 5 pm. Scheduling an appointment ahead of time will make it easier for you to be able to get the attention of the team. Color and fabric may look very different in the shop compared to outside.

Getting in Touch

You can ring 0117 929 1116 for any queries or to make an appointment. They will be delighted to discuss dates, colour and sizes prior to your visit to their store. Good forward planning ensures that the suit is made long before the day of the wedding.

Price Bands and Suit Choices

The company Suits Plus categorizes its suits according to definite price bands that allow potential customers to make choices quickly and easily. Customers will be able to find options starting from below £100 and going up to £100 - £200, £200 - £300 and £300 and upwards. Having an appropriate strategy concerning the look on the wedding day will help the bridegroom feel comfortable.

Examples of prices include a Cavani Malibu tuxedo priced at £209.98, a Cavani Caridi double breasted suit at £208.98 and a Cavani Bond three piece at £399.97. It should be noted that the prices can vary therefore it would be better to check the latest listings before visiting the shop. Some simple additions like an appropriate tie or waistcoat may complete your look perfectly.

Setting the budget first will give your consultants a possibility to offer you suits corresponding to your preferences and possibilities as well. The information about the price band allows planning additional things like waistcoats or boys' suits.

Matching Suits for the Whole Party

A well-coordinated wedding party can only be achieved through proper coordination of outfits among all members. Groom suits, groomsmen and page boys sizes are all available at Suits Plus. Most grooms actually state that the most important part of planning for their wedding is the fitting session.

Groomsmen and Ushers

The men in the wedding party have the option to select suits that complement the colors chosen by the bridegroom and yet retain their personal sense of style. Vest and tie complements can help ensure cohesion without everything looking the same. The input of the team may prove very useful for novices to formal suits.

Page Boys and Family

The men's suits are often made available in boys' versions as well for the page boys to match their colour schemes. The coordination of the family outfits is important to add an extra touch to their pictures. This will save time at the last minute.

Why a Tailored Look Matters Most

There is no choice which will make your wedding suit look better than a perfectly tailored one. If the jacket fits nicely on the shoulders and the pants fall well, then your overall appearance will look much more refined. Writing down your preferences is going to help save time on the next fitting.

Also, tailoring your suit will be essential during the long day of taking photos, making speeches, and dancing. A good fit will allow you to feel comfortable throughout the day and it will be visible in the pictures. It is common for many wedding guests to change their initial opinion about the style after seeing it in reality.

The staff will be able to give some advice on the possible alterations and sizes, to make sure that your suit fits you. Tailoring the suit is one of the most helpful things to do when choosing the outfit. Spending a few minutes to compare different choices is always worth it.

Booking a Group Fitting Session

Suits Plus provides a service for weddings through appointments at The Galleries. Group fittings provide the opportunity for all the participants to try on suits during one single visit. It is essential to choose the right suit which fits comfortably and looks good for the entire day.

Consultation First

A consultation determines the colors, styles and budget prior to fitting. This helps the team have the necessary information to suggest suits that go well with the event and client preference.

The Group Fitting

That day, they will be fitting suits as a group and receiving tips about proper fits. The easiest way to arrange a suitable time for everyone is to book online or call 0117 929 1116.

Delivery, Returns and Ordering Basics

For orders above £200, Suits Plus provides free delivery in the UK, which may be helpful for big wedding parties. However, orders below £200 will have deliveries according to the conditions stated on the site, and thus, it will be necessary to consult them.

The delivery and return policy is provided on the site, as well as the size guide. Prior consultation of these pages would help not to face any unexpected situations and to get the suits of the proper size at once.

In case the wedding day is not far, it is recommended to contact the people from Suits Plus and discuss the details of the order to have enough time to receive them.

From First Visit to Ready Suit

The process from the first visit to getting a custom made suit has well defined stages. All these stages are scheduled based on the marriage date, therefore allowing for fitting and adjustments.

The First Visit

The first meeting is to pick the design, color, and material. Trying out the suit is a good way to see how the cut fits your body type and the atmosphere for the day.

Fittings and Final Collection

The fittings help in determining if the suit fits perfectly or needs to be altered. The suits will be sent over pressed, so that on the day of the wedding everything is perfect.

Making Your Wedding Day Look Right

Choosing your wedding suit requires planning, and since the suit will be the most eye-catching part of your wedding outfit, it is important to spend time on style, color, and fit.

With Suits Plus, a wide variety of styles is complemented with personal consultation and fittings. No matter whether you opt for an informal tweed or a formal tuxedo, we have suits for everyone.

Book by phone at 0117 929 1116 or via our website. Just one fitting is all you need to make sure you are looking great for your special day.